Press Release

Air Bear Tactical Aircraft and Momentum Aviation Group announce availability of Contract Aviation to Law Enforcement

Santa Ana, CA, February 16, 2015: Air Bear Tactical Aircraft (Air Bear) and Momentum Aviation Group (MAG) announced today that they have teamed to provide manned airborne services to Federal, State and Local law enforcement agencies. Gary Bushouse, Air Bear's Director of Business Development states "MAG's capabilities to provide aircraft and trained crews teamed with Air Bear's expertise in airborne law enforcement tactics and training will provide law enforcement agencies with an economical method of implementing airborne law enforcement." Bushouse continues "it was readily apparent that combining MAG's and Air Bear's capabilities would provide cost effective airborne solutions to law enforcement agencies."

MAG is a leader in providing and enabling global situational awareness. MAG delivers Manned Aerial Sensing (Airborne ISR), Unmanned Aerial Sensing (UAS), Aviation Training (Aviation FID), Aviation Logistics, and Training and Exercise Services. Air Bear was formed to share its decades of airborne law enforcement and aviation expertise with the law enforcement community. The teaming agreement allows both entities to provide best in class contract aircraft, crews and training to the law enforcement community. Both companies are dedicated to data privacy and work closely with agencies and communities to ensure that contract airborne services comply with all applicable policies, procedures, regulations, and laws.

France Hoang, Chief Strategy Officer for MAG explains that "MAG provides local and state agencies with world class expertise and innovative technologies," and adds, "all at a great value and seamlessly integrating with existing operations."
